

Dated: 11th March, 2016

Circular No. 2 of 2016

(Punjab Sales Tax)

Subject: Amanat Scheme for Restaurant Customers (ASRC) under Rule 14 of the Punjab Restaurant Invoice Monitoring System Rules, 2015

In supersession of the Circular of even number dated 08.03.2016, it is stated that a scheme by the name of the "Amanat Scheme" providing for valuable gifts/prizes for restaurant customers (hereinafter called "ASRC") has been established by the Punjab Revenue Authority (PRA) in terms of Rule 14 of the Punjab Restaurant Invoice Monitoring System (RIMS) Rules, 2015. By participating in ASRC, all participants shall be deemed to have accepted and agreed to be bound by the following terms and conditions for the said Amanat Scheme:

1. The ASRC is open to a restaurant customer who has consumed or availed taxable services of any restaurant operating under RIMS coverage worth more than one thousand rupees (excluding tax) at a time; has provided his name, CNIC and phone number to the restaurant for printing on the invoice issued to him or has communicated the particulars of invoice on the given short code number through SMS or has sent image of the invoice to the given number of the Authority through WhatsApp Messenger.
2. The ASRC shall comprise a number of prizes as exclusively determined by PRA.
3. PRA on the basis of computerized balloting shall give on a monthly or bi-monthly basis, a prize (inam) in cash or kind (which may include goods like motorcycle and car etc.) to each customer participating in the scheme and who is randomly selected by the automated deployed for the purpose of a fair and transparent balloting.
4. An invoice once received and included in balloting cannot be re-used for balloting in the main draw and shall stand automatically disqualified. However, where ten or more used invoices (previously received through any of the specified methods) are again received from a single source/phone number, they may be included in the student draw, at the sole discretion of PRA.
5. The employees of PRA, PITB, and PRAL who are involved in the implementation of RIMS as well their dependents will not be eligible for participating in the scheme.

